Maryland Rule 16-502 provides in part that upon written request and the payment of reasonable costs, the authorized custodian of an official recording shall make a copy of the audio recording available to any person. Unless authorized by an order of court, a person who receives a copy of an electronic recording shall not make or cause to be made any additional copy of the recording, give, or electronically transmit the recording to any person not entitled to it under subsection (g)(3) of this Rule. Maryland Criminal Procedure Article § 1-201 provides that a person may not broadcast any proceeding in a criminal matter.

By my signature, I acknowledge and agree that this recording will not be broadcasted, copied, or otherwise electronically transmitted to any person, and that any willful violation may be punishable as contempt.
